Project Summary:

The Workers' Compensation Board (WCB) - Alberta is continually exploring ways to provide efficient, cost effective processes and services to injured workers, health care service providers and employers. Direct deposit service is a widely accepted means of disbursement. Many organizations offer direct deposit capability, which allows them to deposit money into their stakeholders' bank accounts in a timely manner. It provides the stakeholder with payment date certainty, convenience, cost savings and security.

The WCB is confident that the privacy and security safeguards in place will adequately protect the personal information involved.
